SAVE A LIFE!

Dear Colleagues! Dear All Who Wants to Help!

It is now the 5th year that we meet knowing, if September, than there is Sepsis Day. Our aim, again, to refresh our ever re-newing knowledge on sepsis.

The forum starts at 14:00 on the 13th of September, 2017 at the Semmelweis University, Central Building in Seminar Room 157. (1082, Budapest, Üllői út 78/A, entrance from Szigony utca – Klinikák Subway Station).

Program:

14:00 - 14:20 Dr. Berényi Tamás – senior consultant emergency physician, president of the Hungarian Society of Emergency Medicine: Changes at cellular level in sepsis..

14:20 - 14:40 Dr. Kanizsai Péter – associate professor, chief emergency physician at Semmelweis University: Sepsis at a subcellular level. The Janus-faced cytokines.

14:40 - 15:10 Dr. Kristóf Katalin – assistant professor, Semmelweis University, Department of Laboratory Medicine: Microbiological diagnostics (involving biomarkers): early detection, early therapy.

15:10 – 15:40 Dr. Lakatos Botond – clinical specialist, Szent László Hospital, Budapest: Latest recommendations in the antimicrobial treatment of infections.

15:40-16:00 Dr. Pető Zoltán – associate professor, chief emergency physician at Szent-Györgyi University, Szeged: Results of the „Hungarian Sepsis Network”

16:00-16:30 – Questions, discussion, recommendation..

Looking forward to seeing you!
